

Justice for People and Planet

A Lenten Retreat for Those in Social Justice Ministry

Sponsored by the Parish Social Ministry Program of the Office for Catholic Social Justice Ministry of the Archdiocese of Hartford

Our Speaker

Sister Margaret Galiardi is a Dominican Sister from Amityville, NY who currently serves as Executive Director of the Spiritual Life Center in West Hartford. In her long history of justice ministry, Sr. Margaret has lived in convents that were also shelters for homeless women and their children, refugees, and women recently released from prison, and has worked in soup kitchens and shelters. She served as Executive Director for the Intercommunity Center for Justice and Peace in New York City. Sr. Margaret was a member of the International Commission for Justice, Peace and Care of Creation for the Dominican Order. She has lectured nationally on ecological theology, developed by the Holy Father, the Bishops, and by emerging ecological and evolutionary theologians. Sr. Margaret spent the 2009-2010 year in silence and solitude, living with the Trappist Monks in their monastery on the Lost Coast of Northern California.

Saturday, March 10, 2012

9:30 am - 2:00 pm

Sisters of St. Joseph Convent, 27 Park Road, West Hartford

$35 Registration fee. Refreshments and lunch provided.
Limited Scholarship Assistance is available.

Name _____
Street _____
City _____ State _____ ZIP _____
Parish _____
Parish City/Town _____
Phone _____
E-mail _____

Directions

Please park in the back of the building, entering by the Prospect Ave. entrance. Enter the building by the statue of Mary which is in a courtyard to the left of the parking area, directly opposite a three-bay garage.

Mail Registration form with your $35 fee to:

Office for Catholic Social Justice Ministry
81 Saltonstall Avenue
New Haven, CT 06513

For more information:

(203) 777-7279 or ocsjm@catholicsocialjustice.org

